GEORGE CAMPBELL JR.

President of The Cooper Union

MESSAGE

In 1859, Peter Cooper, perhaps the nation's first great philanthropist, contributed the bulk of his wealth to establish The Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art, and so began a great tradition that has proven its worth over the past century and a half. It's a tradition of academic excellence, a tradition of free access for exceptional students, a tradition of public engagement and civic responsibility, a tradition further enriched by your academic achievements. Congratulations to members of the class of 2006 on earning your degrees at one of the nation's premier institutions of higher education.

30 Cooper Square, New York, NY 10003-7120

As you enter the next phase of your lives, critical challenges of the 21st century have already been made manifest. This new age of globalization, amplified by exponential growth in human knowledge, new modes of creative expression and startlingly rapid technological advances, is also characterized by persistent human conflict, new assaults on democratic freedoms and a deterioration of civil liberties. Solving the problems that face our civilization presents enormous challenges but also great opportunities for those prepared to think creatively and to act boldly.

51 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-7132

It has been a great privilege to have students with your remarkable talent and ability studying with us here at The Cooper Union during this crucial stage of your intellectual development and professional preparation. We fully anticipate that you will follow in the footsteps of your predecessors who have collectively made inestimable contributions to society, contributions that transcend the material.

29 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10003-5502

It was once said of Peter Cooper that he combined the highest integrity with utmost success. We wish no less for today's graduates of his institution.

GEORGE CAMPBELL JR.

COLOPHON

Designed by Seth Labenz and Roy Rub, the 2006 CABLE showcases two typefaces, Mercury and Knockout, both designed by Jonathan Hoefler and Tobias Frere-Jones. Mercury is an extensive type family created for the environment of newsprint, while Knockout was inspired by wood-block type used on Victorian circus posters. The Cooper Union script logo was drawn by Tom Carnase circa 1970. All photography was taken by Seth Labenz.

Both would like to say thank you.

Sincerely,

*The
